THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD

SPENCER COOPER, Publi ber.

WAZEL GREEN, : : KENTUCKY. THE LITTLE LAND.

When at home alone I sit And am very tired of it,
I have just to shut my eyes
To go sailing through the skies,
To go sailing far away
To the fairy land afar,
Where the little is a far, Where the little people are, Where the clover tops are trees, And the rain pools are the seas, And the leaves, like little ships, Sail about on tiny trips: And above the daisy tree. High o'erhead the bumble bee

Hums and passes. In that forest to and fro I can wander, I can go; See the spider and the fly, And the ants go marching by Carrying parcels with their feet Down the green and grassy street,
I can in the sorrel sit
Where the ladybird alit,
I can climb the jointed grass;
And on high See the greater swallows pass

And the round sun rolling by Heeding no such things as I. Through that forest I can pass Till, as in a looking glass, Humming fly and daisy tree And my tiny self I see. Painted very clear and neat On the rain-pool at my feet. Should a leaflet come to hand Drifting near to where I stend Drifting near to where I stand, Straight I'll board that tiny boat Round the rain-pool sea to float.

Little thoughtful creatures sit On the grassy coasts of it; Little things with lovely eyes See me sailing with surprise. Some are clad in armor green— (These have sure to battle been) me are pied with every hue. Black and crimson, gold and blue; Some have wings and swift are gone. But they all look kindly on. hen my eyes I once again en and see all things plain; Open and see all things plain;
High, bare walls, a great bare floor;
Great big knobs on drawer and door;
Great big people perched on chairs,
Stitching tucks and mending tears,
Each a hill that I could climb and taking nonsense all the time—

O, dear me,
That I could be
A sallor on the rain-pool sea,
A climber in the clover tree,
And just come back, a sleepy head, Late at night to go to bed. Louis Stevenson, in a Child's Garden of

A FALSE FRIEND.

Interesting Story of An Australian Convict.

I returned only three months ago from Melbourne, where I had been in permitted him to talk, but implored and to endorse it with the words: "Sig- ried her to her room. I then sent for other popular games of the day. there was a good opening in most of the larger towns for medical men; and I was exceptionally fortunate in the introductions with which the forethought of my friends at home had provided me, patients rang my bell in years I was making an annual income of nearly £3,000; and when, owing to family necessities, I was obliged regretfully to turn my back upon the new land that had treated me so hand- a good school he sent me to Camsomely, I had saved £20,000, and had, in addition, obtained a very respectable sum by the sale of the good-will of Temple, was Horace Raven, a young my practice to a distinguished voung man who possessed astonishing ability. Edinburgh surgeon, who went out ex- remarkable good looks, great ambition. pressly to succeed me. I give these and the prospect of succeeding to a details not in order to encourage ambitious young fellows, fresh from the schools, to rush off to Austral a under the impression that it is st li an Eldorado, but in order to show that I stood I had no influential relatives, 22 year well in the front rank of my profession relatives indeed of any kind, except my in Melbourne, and in some measure to father, I being an only child, and my account for the fact that when a gen- mother having died during my infancy. tieman who held very high political rank in Victoria met with a severe ly successful. Raven and I had chamand ultimately fatal accident, I was bers together; we had our law-books called to attend h m. I suppress his in common; and we were on such terms name for reasons which will be obvious of friendship that we were known on and stockholders in the colony. I have in tolerable comfort; and in time inridden for thirty miles along the banks deed I felt myself to be justified in of the river Murrumbidgee without going off his property; and whereas ordinary men count their possessions by ball at Lady D---'s. We there met a hundreds of acres, he counted his by Miss Mary Bagster, a young girl of hundreds of square miles. He had surpassing beauty; and before the night worked hard, and his upward progress was spent we had both-as I learned had been gradual; but it had always subsequently-fallen in love with her. been steady. When I knew him, no Her father, like mine, was a poor clerman in Australia was more respected or looked up to. He had been knighted establishing myself upon a footing of as a small reward for his services as a intimacy with her family; and often colonial minister; he had rece ved all when I visited them, Raven accomkinds of grat fying testimonials from panied me. Mary, though she was, as his fellow-citizens; his word in all the I have said, inexpressibly lovely, was transactions of life was as good as an- of a somewhat cold disposition. She other man's bond; and yet S.r James, was unenthusiastic and self-contained forty years before, had come to Austra- to an unusual degree; and yet, in her Lady Raven. You can not expect me his as a convict, on account of the ds- way she was amb tious. She desired to be able to tell you that the man who graceful crime of forgery. I never in- to marry a man who would make his so cruelly swore away my liberty made quired into the details of his case; and way in the world; and it was only after her a good husband. He systematindeed I never knew them until he told some very flattering hints about me ically ill-treated her; and although

Sir James lived in a beautiful and favored me, that she consented to be- she was crushed by his brutal ty, he spacious house overlooking the sea, come my wife. Raven was not at Mr. behaved o her as he would not have and distant a few miles from the center Bagster's house on that eventful even- behaved to his dogs. Do you know, of the city. In spite of h s seventy ing. Next morning, when I met him doctor, that I preserve my love for her years he was a good and active horse- at our chambers, I told him of what still? I have never ceased to love her, man; and one morning, as was his fre- had occurred. He changed color- although she believed evil of me, and quent custom, he rode into Melbourne which at the time I attributed to the never sent me a single word of sympain order to transact some business with strength of h's friendship for me-and thy; and I have left everything I have flesh-powder-just the least little tinthis solicitor. He had quitted the law- then congratulated me in a somewhat to her eldest son, who by this time has looks beaut ful and never shows but home again, when his horse was frightened by some blasting ried?' he asked. operations which were being carried on "Soon,' I replied. There is no living, she is to have a life interest in in connection with the making of a reason why we should delay. I could my estate. Poor thing, she deserves new road. The animal became restive, wish that I were a little better off; but it; for sadly did she suffer and not unand finally threw Sir James. He tell our misfortune in that respect will, I heavily upon a heap of stones, and his trust, disappear in course of time. As "And he?" I asked. What became heavily upon a heap of stones, and his trust, disappear in course of time. As groom coming up found him lay- it is, we shall, I think, be able to do of Raven?" ing insensible. The unfortunate gen- pretty well.' tleman, who was known to every " 'I wish you joy!' said Raven, as he plunged into the lowest depths of one in the neighborhood, was rose to go into the Chancellor's Court, drunkenness and dissipation. He had tenderly carried to the nearest where he had a brief that morning. house; and no sooner did he regain "I had then no idea that he also ago I read that he had been picked up Belles have changed color thus in an consciousness than he sent his servant loved Mary Bagster, and that he had in a fit in the streets of Paris and had for his carriage and dispatched a mes- determined, even at that late hour, if died before his removal to the hossenger to request me to go at once to not to wrench her from me for hanself, pital." his house. I rode thither immediately, at least to prevent my marrying her. "I am shortly going to England, Sir do. I furnish them wigs, false frizzes, and reached the place before Sir His conduct toward me remained, so James," I said, "and if I can be of any bangs, and black har; I dye the'r hair, James arrival. I feared, of course, far as I could see, exactly what it had use in discovering this poor lady's or black it; I sell them cosmetics, fix that he had met with an accident; but been previous to my engagement. He whereabouts, I shall be giad to do my their complexion, and pencil their eye-I had not the faintest idea of the was genial and friendly, appeared to best." nature of it; and therefore I was take an absorbing interest in all my You are going to England? I am false eyebrows except to pencil them; greatly shocked when, a few minutes plans for the future, and actually ac- happy to hear it. You can then do but that is the best anyhow, it does not later, I saw him lifted from his car- companied me to Branswick Square to what I feared would have to be done by show. rage, helpless and well-nigh speech- look over a house which was to be let. a th rd party. I want you to find Lady "What will a wig cost?" less. He was conveyed to his bed- and which I thought of taking and fur- Raven and tell her what I have told room, which was upon the ground nishing. I found that the place would you. Tell her that, although we have sell excellent ones for $75. The gray floor; and upon examining him I dis- be rather beyond my means, and re- been separated for more than forty and blonde are most expensive. Men's covered that several of his ribs were gretfully told him so. broken, that the internal organs had " Never mind, Jack, he said: 'you thinking of her; and that I forgive her; I sell you a false mustache?" - Chicago been injured, and that there was, will find something better, perhaps. and Yes, doctor, tell her, too, that Tribune. practically speaking, no hope of his But I certainly should like you to have I forgive him. I must forgive him. recovery. Sir James was a bachelor, the house.' and had no female relatives in the col- That evering we were sitting to- I need not go on to describe the painony. He most live, I knew, for some gether over the fire. 'Jack!' he said, ful hours I spent at Sir James' side ere Texas, according to the Cotulia (Tex.) days; and his housekeeper, though a suddenly, we are old friends, and I death released him from his sufferings. Ledger, which, in speaking on the subk and and thoughtful woman, was far want to give you a handsome wedding Suffice it to say that he bore himself, ject. says: "We scarcely pick up an ex-assistance that I might need, and to do cases. exactly as I deemed best.

sa'd the gentleman, "to preserve his | welcome,' I said. valuable life."

the slightest hope of saving it; but from a drawer, and filled in a draft, me, when she had first apologized for you may be sure that I will spare no which, after he had carefully examined, the disorder of her temporary abode. pains.

Sir James had fainted during his re-

"So I'm not gone yet, doctor," he said, with a weird kind of humor. "Can this last for long?" "Who can say?" I replied. "You your taking it. If you refuse, we can are sadly hart. Are you in much pain?" "No: tnank God! In pain, but not in severe pain."

"I should warn you," I said, as gently as I could, "that if you have any of you. I thank you with all my heart; should be his he'rs-is it not?" worldly affairs to settle, you should but I can not accept such a large sum. settle them speedily. There is grievous danger."

"I know it," he returned, with a sad smile: "but I have settled everythingeverything, that is, that a lawyer could help me in. Yet before I die there is something that I should like to con- did not ment on the fact of my having it, the will not having then been

"Will it agitate you to tell it?" "I'm afraid it will, a little," he re-

"Then wait until to-morrow, Sir James. The danger is great-even inevitable, I fear; but not immediate; and with which I had but recently opened his wife! you had better wait until you are calmer, and, let us hope, stronger. The shock has tried you terribly, and you have not yet had time to recover from

"As you will," he assented. do not leave it until too late."

I recommended him to the care of the nurse, who had by this time arrived; and retired to bed, not knowing how soon I might be summoned to him, or how long it might be before I should be able again to quit his side. In the early morning I returned to his room. He was sleeping, and the nurse inmore recurred to the subject which his name in a way which had caused his fell like a corpse to the floor. seemed to be uppermost in his mind, I banker to decline to cash the check, I summoned the servants, who car- and included in it backgammon and cars. When I went out to the colony, sible, and not to overtax his strength.

What he told me was in substance as follows. I made exhaustive notes of it as soon as I left his room, and I am confident that I have succeeded in recalling many of Sir James' actualphrases. It made a very powerful im pression upon me, and I do not doubt considerable numbers. Within three that it will equally excite the interest and sympathy of the reader. The names alone are altered.

"I was born," he said, "in London in 1812. My father was the rector of St. -- 's: and after putting me to bridge. I took my degree in 1833, and then went to the bar. My chief friend, both at Cembridge and at the Inner large fortune and to one of the oldest English baronetcies. In all these respects he was, I need scarcely say, my superior. I was a poor man; I had only my energies to depend upon; and At the bar I was, for a youngster, fairlater on; but for convenience I will call our staircase as 'the Brothers.' For some years I lived a very happy life. I Sir James was one of the largest land made enough to enable myself to live looking out for a wife. "One evening Raven and I went to a them to me when he was on his death- and my ability had been let drop in her she bore him several children, and was, presence by her father, who evidently I have heard, an exemplary wife until

"When are you going to be mar-nate master. I sent the groom back succeeded to the baronetcy and the cs- last he was thoughtful for all about light which has long been hidden. It to Melbourne for an experienced hospi- tates, and was now a rich man.

the sake of the giver.' When the news of the accident was "We have been in chambers togethto breathe. I was to summon any usually is acceptable, I believe, in these Reilly's will.

"We would move heaven and earth," thought. 'It would be particularly pleasant but not very well-furnished

"Without another word, he drew his Bayswater. "I feel," sa'd I, "that there is not cha'r to the table, took his check-book | "It is all a mystery," she said to he handed to me.

senses for some hours afterward. I was for I was overcome by this act of ap- you have heard of it?" sitting by his bedside when he opened parent and totally unexpected generosity, 'it is too much; it is too good of in which she spoke of her dead beneyou. I can not think of accepting it.' factor. " You know that I can well afford it,' he said, curtly. I insist upon pride and the draft.'

an account.

officer entered my room, and, showing name to that check which led to Sir seven, dying in Cavendish Square, Lonme into custody.

struck. 'Forgery! Forgery of what?' | suffer Sir James' fair name to be slan-I exclaimed, half-maddened by the monstrous charge.

was only too plausible, I alone could be fact that she had long been a sufferer the criminal. The check was pavable from heart d sease. might have written it.

"You can guess the sequel, doctor. ably defended by a leading counsel, Journal. who was a personal friend of mine. I was convicted and sentenced to transportation. How shall I describe to you I was sent out here with a sh p-load of cut throats and felons. In a few years, doubtless. I was nearly forgotten at home, for my conviction killed my father; and who else was there to remember me save Raven and Mary Bagness, soon afterward marr ed!'

with spasmod c pains, brought on by his excitement; and I was obliged to temporarily forbid his continung the painful narrat.ve. An hour or two later, however, finding him calmer, I permitted him to go on.

"I served my time," he continued: and then, having no friends in England, I decided to remain here. Like many others; I went to the diggings, and, unlike most. I was fortunate. 1 invested everything in land and stock: tried to make myself publicly useful; gradually obtained the confidence and respect of my fellow-citizens, and two or three years ago, as you know, received the honor of knighthood. I can now say with truth, doctor, that there is no man in Australia who would rewas once a convict."

"Has your innocence never been proved!" I asked. "Never!" he returned. "I might, perhaps, have made a second endeavor to prove it long ago: but I could not bring myself to make her unhappyunnappier, that is, than he has made her. As I have told you, she became sons of his own. But I do not know whether or not she is dead. I have, however, provided that, should she be

"In time he deserted her, and preperly attending upon her infortu- "He had, I should explain, recently with becoming resigns on. Until the ed. or some terrible crime brought to tal nurse, and in the meantime re- "You are very good,' I answered the long sleep at last closed his weary matters are hard crime invariably inhim rather than for himself; and when is a noticeable fact that when money mained with my distinguished patient, Anything that you may give us will eyes, I turned away, feeling that Austreases."

and did all that lay in any power for be valued, not merely for itself, but for tralia had lost a man the memory of The Smallest Watch in the World.

whom she might justly cherish. Two or three months afterward I republished in the city, it occasioned er,' he resumed, for more than seven turned to England. Lady Raven, who great excitement. Several of Sir years. I shan't like losing your com- for some time had been in impoverished James' former colleagues immed ately pany; for of course I shall be robbed of circumstances, had meanwhile been dismet together; and one of them rode to a good deal of it now. Be plain with covered by my late patient's solicitors; the house to request that I would not me, Jack. Would not money be more and before I saw her, she had been ap- gated cube, and was an inch long. A leave it so long as my patient continued useful to you than a mere present? It prised of the provisions of Sir James faint musical ticking that issued from

I introduced myself to her as his "I thanked him feelingly for his fore- friend; and found her occupying a house in one of the best squares of "Poor James! He was once very fond "I took it, and gazed at it with as- of me: It was many years ago. We moval from the earriage to the house, tonishment-it was for a thousand should have married, you know, but for and he did not regain the use of his pounds! 'My dear Raven,' I gasped, an unfortunate circumstance. Perhaps

> "I was slightly annoyed at the tone "I have heard of it. Lady Raven." I returned, seriously. "But it did not spoil his success in no longer remain on terms of friend- life." she continued, with a slight laugh: "and now at last he has made "'Nay, Raven,' I cried, while my restitution. Well, it is only what we heart seemed to rise to my throat. 'Do deserve! He robbed my late husband. not misunderstand me. This is noble you know; and it is fitting that we

I was beginning to feel angry. Even "He would not listen, however, to my if Sir James had been guilty, she had refusal; and finally I pocketed both my no right to speak of him now in so light and scornful a tone. Already I "Mary Bagster was at the time pay- saw she was recklessly spending her ing a short visit to her friends in the newly acquired wealth, though she had country; and thus it happened that I not actually entered into possession of received "Raven's bandsome present proved. Her misfortune had not made either to her or to any one else. I a good woman of her. She was gaudlooked forward to surprising her with lily dressed. Instead of being in mournthe news upon her return to town; and ing, she was covered with jewelry. in the meantime I sent the draft to my | Surely it was well for poor Sir James banker's, a well-known private firm, that this vain woman had never been

"Lady Raven," I said, sternly, "we "A few mornings afterward I was may as well end this. Sir James Reilly as a means of keeping himself out of sitting at breakfast in my bachelor never injured you or any other living the poorbouse. Edmund Hoyle was lodgings in Chapel street, Bedford creature. It was your husband who born over two hundred years ago, and Row, when, without warning, a police was the criminal! He wrote his own lived to the advanced age of ninetyme a warrant which author zed him to James' transportation. He denied the don, in 1709. He was among the first arrest me on a charge of forgery, took | facts, and caused your benefactor to be | who took special interest in whist, and sent to the antipodes! And do you "As you may expect, I was thunder- think that I, knowing all this, will dered?"

She turned pale, and clung for sup-"But I sounlearned, a little and guessed port to a chair. "Gracious powers!" the rest. Raven, in order to dispose of she exclaimed; "is it—can it be true? I was paid $5,000 for a treatise on whist, formed me that he had passed an un- me, and to effectually put a stop to my knew it. then-I knew it! My husband which was published in 1743. At the marriage, had written out the draft in once told me all, when he was delirious breakfasted, therefore, when he once an unusual manner, and had appended with drink. God forgive me!" and she

a physician, and in the meantime did | Chicago Times. "The draft had been returned in this what I could to revive her. But my condition to Raven, who without hesi- efforts were in vain, and soon after my tation had pronounced it to be a colleague arrived she expired. An exforgery. According to his story, which aminat on subsequently disclosed the

to me: I had access to the drawer in I am glad to be able to say that her which he kept the book from which the son, who is now enjoying Sir James form had been torn; and the clumsy Reilly's munificent bequest, is worthy signature had been written much as I of the legacy. A week or two ago he sailed with his family for Victoria, and it is his ambition there to follow in his was tried; and although I was very | benefactor's footsteps. - Chambers'

TOILETTE MYSTERIES.

the agony of those days! In due course | Secrets Imparted to a Reporter by a La dies' Hair-Dresser. "They are wearing their own colors more this year. What style will you have?" said a wig-maker to a reporter who peeped in upon the mysteries of st r, whom he, to add to my wretched- her shop. "O no!" (looking at the reporter's full suit of hair.) "Maybe At this point Sir James was seized you want to bleach: but men don't H.rald, bleach so much. Now, ladies bleach a great dear, though not as much as formerly, but I don't believe I ever before heard of a man bleaching. Well, here's some perox - O! Well, what do you want? You don't want your mustache dyed? But, maybe vor want a false one, or' --- and she hesi-> tated for a moment. "What's the latest shade in hair?"

asked the scribe. "As I said when you came in more natural now. But blonde is still the favorite with those who dve. Not the reddish blonde of last year! No, no, no! A soft, bright, natural color-a sort of dim, yellow flax. Gray hair is not as fashionable as it was, but ladies fuse to grasp me by the hand because I who have it don't try to make a change. The har is worn fuller in frontstands out in puffy ringlets-for common. For evening, bangs and frizzes are out of fashion, and the hair is combed back from the forehead. Powders are used a great deal. Diamond dust is popular, and so is gold and silver powder. But what did you want. did you sav? Some secrets, ch?" And she raised her eyebrows and threw her head a little to one side. "Yes, I can tell vou some secrets, real secrets;

ha, ha, ha! but O no: can't: it woulnd't do. wearing false hair is not secret; no. No one conceals that. I remember when they used to, but they have gotten over that. There are lots of women in Washington society who wear wigs. That's more of a secret. They paint? O, that part of their toilet vou can see, ch? Well, many more paint than you'd believe. These what's natural. French powders are good. But one must know how to use such things. There is one powder, one of the best, is just touched to the cheek, which if rubbed polishes with a metall'e luster, and makes the face look just like tin. Sometimes ladies don't know how to use it, and they make their faces look like a milk-can. It is iust the color of bright tin. There is another kind of cosmet'c which when exposed to the gas that comes up someevening. But they fool oftener than they get footed. I could tell you lots years, I still think of her; that I die wigs run from $12 to $30 or $40. Can -Crime is on the increase in Western

A small, gold penholder, resting in a rich velvet case, lay on a jeweler's showtase in John street, last week. The end of the holder was shaped like an elonit attracted a customer's attention. The leweler lifted the holder from the case, with a smile, and exhibited a tiny watch dial, 1-16th of an inch in diameter, set in the side between two other dials almost as small. One indicated the day, and the other the month of the year. The center dial ticked off seconds, minutes and hours.

"This is the smallest watch ever made." the jeweler said, "and the only and matter; besides, I was very thin, and one of its kind in the world. It took a so weak I could scarcely go about the Geneva watchmaker the better part of house. This was the case of a man with two years to ht the parts together so He recovered his health completely by the that they would work accurately. It use of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Dishas been exhibited in bondon and covery." Thousands of others bear simi-Paris."

The works of the watch were so that they fitted lengthwise in the holder. The mainspring was an elongated coil of steel fitted to the wheels by a tiny chain, and worked like an old fashioned clock weight. The works were wound by means of a little screw of gold on the under side of the handle. A gold pen was fitted in the holder, and the jeweler wrote with it without disturbing the operations of the fairy watch. "What's the price?" the customer asked. "A round $500," replied the jeweler, laughing .- N. Y. Sun.

"According to Hoyle."

"According to Hoyle," is a phrase common among card-players, many of whom are under the impression that Mr. Hoyle was a reformed gambler, who turned his attention to bookmaking after it became a craze he devoted several years of his life to teaching the game at a guinea a lesson. Some supposed that he invented the game, but it was well known before he was born. However he did much to perfect it. He same time he was attached to a Government office in Ireland. Toward the

-As James T. Fields was once on his way on the cars from Boston to his summer cottage at Manchester-by-the-Sea, two men sat in front of him, discussing places and the persons who lived in them. Mr. Fields caught his own name and bent forward to listen. "Let's see," says one: "Fields, the publisher, lives round here somewheres. don't he?" "Yes, he's got a house on the hill just beyond here." "Lectures, don't he?" "Oh, yes, he lectures a lot." "Well, how is he, anyway?" "Well. he ain't Gough, by a big sight!"-Boston Herald.

-Two Tampa (Fla.) fisherman latel; captured a sawfish sixteen feet three nches long, six feet wide, and weighing 500 pounds. The saw was over four

-It has recently been explained in Boston how the sun's rays can be utilized in heating one's house. - Boston

-Some genius has invented a fishingrod that registers the precise number and weight of the fishes caught .- N. Y.

SISTERS of Notre Daine, Govanstown,

Md., say Red Star Cough Cure is beneficial. THAT was a very conscientious humorist who broke off an engagement because his girl had chestnut hair .- The Hatchet. Variety the Spice of Life.

There is variety in the letters received by Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, testifying to the cures effected by her Vegetable Compound and the great relief afforded to thousands | had any return of these of women in all sections. Mrs. C-, of Toronto, says: "I have taken three bottles with very gratifying results." Mrs. Stephen B, of Sheffington, Quebec, says: "I am now using the fourth bottle and have derived great benefit already." Sarah C-, of Eugene City, Oregon, says: "It is the best medicine for the female sex I have ever found." Mrs. C--of Santa Fe, says: "Your Compound has done me a great deal of good." Mrs. H. S. -, of Portland, Me., says: "It has done for me all it claimed to and I cheerfully recommend it to all suffering as I have done." Mrs. D. H. E., of Lexington, Va., says: "I have taken one bottle and I assure you I feel a great deal better, I feel strong as ever and I've never felt a pain in my back since the second dose."

What is a great deal worse than raining cats and dogs? Hailing a stage.

· · · Delicate diseases, affecting male or female, however induced, speedily and permanently cured. Illustrated book three letter stamps. Consultation free. World's Dispensary Medical Association. Buffalo, N. H.

"It is terrible to see what revenge these plumbers show," he said, as he laid down the paper he had been reading. "Yes, it is," she replied. "What special circumstance do you refer to now?" delphia knight of the solder has just poisoned a dado at the Zoological Garden because the bird had a larger bill than he did."-The Judge.

"IF I can not have the fat of the land I can take a little lean," said a tramp, as he rested his shoulder against a lamp-post

THE latest mathematical (?) problem sent to the State University is the following: "If the earth's orbit about the sun is 2,500,000,000 miles what would be the hypothenuse of a right-angle triangle inscribed within a circle circumscribed by a hexagon?"-Arkansaw Traveler.

"GREAT Cæsar!" exclaimed the tramp, as he leaped over the fence. "Great seizer!" observed the farmer, as he watched the dog returning with a sample of the tramp's trousers.—Boston Transcript.

THE home stretch-Roping an old-fashton bedstead.

Men I say cure I do not mean merely to stop them for a lime and then have them return again, I mean a radical core. I have made the disease of FITS, EPILEPSY or FALCING SIGENESS a Richelong study. I warrant my remedy to cure the worst cases. Because others have folioid is no reason for not now receiving a cure. Send at once for a treatly and a practical joker. Starting off in a hurry in the morning he caught sight of himself in a mirror. Puzzled, he stopped and gazed, Address Dr. H. G. BOOT, 185 Fearl St., New York a mirror. Puzzled, he stopped and gazed, and finally exclaimed: "Be jabbers, they've woke up the wrong man."-N. Y. Mail.

caught in a railway-frog. When the frog sees her coming it gets out of the way. It doesn't want to be masked .- Boston Cour-"WHERE does Mr. Jenkins live, and how old are you, my dear?" he asked of the pretty attendant at the 'apartment hotel-and demurely looking into the pockets of her apron she answered: "Suite 16, sir."

A CHICAGO girl never gets her foot

N. Y. Graphic. "An Omaha doctor kisses his wife seventy-five times every day." Declors are fond of giving disagreealic doass, we know .- Yonkers Statesman.

THE Chinese language has several thou-sand letters, but T is the one most used.

For the Ladies. Laughter is the poor man's plaster, Making every burden light: Turning sadness into gladness, Darkest hour to May dawn bright.

"Tis the deepest and the cheapest Cure for his of this description, But for those that woman's heir to. Use Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription. Cures all weaknesses and irregularities, "bearing down" sensations, "internal fever," bloating, displacements, inflamma-tion, morning sickness and tendency to cancerous disease. Price reduced to one dollar. By druggists.

" THE boy who "hit the nail on the head" wept to find that it was his thumb-nail.

I Had a Dreadful Cough, and raised a considerable amount of blood consumption arising from liver complaint.

A good big inning is half of the game.-

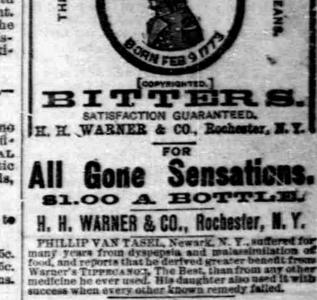

DESERVING OF CONFIDENCE. - There is no article which so richly deserves the confidence of the public as Brown's Bronchial TROCHES. Those suffering from Asthmatic and Bronchial Diseases, Coughs and Colds, should try them. Sold only in boxes.

THE way to make an overcost last is to make the undercoat first.-Lynn Union. PIKE'S TOOTHACHE DROPS cure in 1 minute, 25c. Glenn's Sulphur Soap heals and beautifies. 25c. GERMAN CORN REMOVER kills Corns & Bunious.

A DENTIST is no chicken. He is always a pull-it.

WILHOFT'S FEVER AND AGUE TONIC A varranted cure for all diseases caused by malarial poisoning of the blood, such as Chills and Fever, Fever and Ague, Sun Pains, Dumb Chills, Intermittent, Remittent, Billous and all other Fevers caused by malaria. It is also the safest LOUISIANA and best cure for enlarged Spicen (Fever Cake), General Debility and Periodic Neuralgia. 17 For Sale by all Druggists.

CHAS. F. KEELER, Prop., Chicago, III. MONTH D/D and expenses paid any active person to sell our goods. No capital required. Salary paid monthly. Expenses in advance. Full par-ticulars FREE. We mean what we say. Standard Silver Ware Co., Washington St., Boston, Mass.

WARNER'S

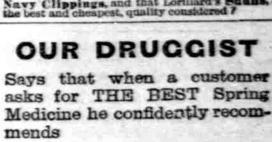

TPPECANO!

Constitutional Tonic IT HAS NO EQUAL.

$1.00 A BOTTLE. H. WARNER & CO., Rochester, N. Y.

W. K. SAGE, of St. Johns, Mich., was completely prostrated by the headships endured during the late war. He returned home a wreck both in mind and body. For twenty years he simply existed, half the time more dead than alive until he was restored to health by Warner's Tippecanor. The Best. Headvises all old yets to try it. Write to him as St. Johns, Mich.

I have been in the drug and prescription business in Nashua over forty years, and am the oldest druggist here. I was the first to introduce your valuable medicines in this city. I believe in them. Ayer's Sarsaparilla I take pleasure in recommending to my customers, well knowing it to give satisfaction. In all my experience, as a druggist, I have yet to hear the first complaint against it.

From F. & E. Railey & Co., Lowell, Man. Having sold Aser's Sarsaparilla since it was first placed upon the market, we can say, after an experience covering a quarter of a century, that we have yet to learn of a case where it has failed to give said tion. Its merits are fully established.

From C. Way & Co., Portland, Me. We have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla for years, and our customers are much pleased with its effects. We believe it to be one of the best medicines in the market.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla, Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by Druggists. Price $1; six bottles $5.

RSONS PURGATIVE DI

My brother Myron and CATARRH nyself were both cured, to all appearance, of Catarrh and Hay-Fever last Jast and August. Up to this date, Dec. 29, neither have troubles. Ely's Cream Daim HAY FEVER was the medicine used .-GABRIEL FRANCE, Spencer. Tioga Co., N. Y.

CREAM BALM

ntation wherever known, displacing all other preparations. A particle is applied into each nostril; no pain; agreeable to use Price 50c. by mail or at druggists. Send for circular ELY BROTHERS, Druggists, Owego, N. T.

AN INVALUABLE FAMILY MEDICINE.

Graspecial feature of Ridge's Food, in contradiatinction to others, is its neutral action upon the bowels. For this reason, it is specially adapted to those seasons when bowel troubles are so frequent. Remember Ridge's Food is an old and tried preparation, having been in use for thirty years in England and America. It is a perfectly safe and nourishing diet for all conditions.

SOLDIERS NEW LAWS; Officers' pay from ed; Pensions and increase; experience is years; success or no fee. Write for circulars and laws.

A. W. McCORMICK & SON. Cincinnat. Onlo. TELL THE TRUTH! Worship of the Golder and Bible, by Uncie Tim. The most spicy book of the times. Price, 25 cts.; 5 for S1. BUXTON & SKINNER STATIONERY CO., St. Louis, Mo.

Bro. Jonathan's Jokes 80 pages, Illustrated, Sent, Postpaid, for Twelve Cents. Excelsior Publishing House, 19 & 21 Beckman St., New York. SURE CURE TO DYSPEPSIA and dress J. M. SHELLY, Charlotte, North Ca women all over our land. Every mother, wife and daughter is deeply, vitally interested in the work, and should send for it without delay. I sent to any address in the world Free of Costi Carefully, study it well, and you will glean it carefully, study it well, and you will glean it on that may prove more valuable than all the of the Rothschilds—more precious than all to the Rothschilds—more precious to Europe's royalty. It may save your BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., BOX 28, Asia UNEQUALLED FOR CEMENTH WOOD, GLASS, CHINA, PAPER, LE WARDED COLD MEDAL, LON red by Mason & Hamilio Organ & Planni alsot Car Co. hr. sifty only by the new book, which treaty of diseases "pe female sex," and have spared neither pai to make it worthy the perusal and cond women all over our land. Every mother

IN TONE IN TOUCH COM

IN FINISH Combines best wor THE JOHN CHURCH CO., General Factors, Cincinnati, Chie.

A.N.K-E. WHEN WRITING TO ADVE

$50 or more easily earned by our Agents. Exclusive territory given. Article wanted ever where. Send stamp for particulars or $1 ft sample. KIMBALL S. D. & Co., Crystal Falls, Mic. CANCER Treated and cured whitee. Address F.L. POND. E.A. Assert, Ease Co. Treated and cured without the knife in order to raise funds for its completion, have prepared a miniature States siz inches in height -the Statue Bronzed: Pedestal, Nickel-stivered which they are now delivering to subscribers through out the United States at One Dollar Each. This attractive souvenir and Mantel or Deak orns ment is a rerfect fac-simils of the model furnished by The Statuette in same metal, twelve inches high,

The Committee in charge of the construction of the ase and pedestal for the reception of this great work,

Five Bollars Each, delivered. The designs of Statue and Pedestal are protected by U. S. Patents, and the models can only be furnish by this Committee. Address, with remittance, RICHARD BUTLER, Secretary, (American Committee of the Statue of Liberty), 33 Mercer Street, New York.